

MARKING

Article 60 of the General Rules of the European Schools - Assessment

Marking system: For assessment purposes teachers shall use a marking scale of 0 to 10. Equivalences between the various marks on the scale and the performance of the pupil are below.

DEFINITIONS	NOTES
The performance meets the requirements of the subject and the question particularly adequately. The mark 10 does not mean that the performance is flawless but it does denote a performance which is outstanding in all respects.	9-10
The performance fully meets the requirements of the subject and the question.	8-8.9
The performance generally meets the requirements of the subject and the question.	7-7.9
The performance does show weaknesses but still meets the requirements of the subject and the question on the whole.	6-6.9
The performance does not meet the requirements of the subject and the question but shows that the necessary basic knowledge exists and that the weaknesses can be remedied in the foreseeable future.	4-5.9
The performance does not meet the requirements of the subject and the question, the basic knowledge being so sketchy that the weaknesses can be remedied only in the comparatively distant future.	2-3.9
The performance does not meet the requirements of the subject and the question, the basic knowledge being so sketchy that the weaknesses cannot be remedied in the foreseeable future.	0.1-1.9
This assessment will be given in the event of a blank or unacceptable script, of the absence of an answer or of a practical project or of cheating.	0
